

JUDGEMENT CRITERIA

35%

USABILITY

- The project serves a useful purpose and solves a non-trivial problem.
- The project is intuitive to use for its intended audience.
- The repo is well-documented.

35%

TECHNICAL

- The project is functional and reliable (it doesn't constantly crash)
- The project involves a high level of technical complexity.
- The project is scalable and efficient.

15%

DEPLOYMENT

- The project is deployed and easily available to users.
This may mean it is hosted on a website, launched on the app store or deployed to a package manager.

15%

ORIGINALITY

- The project is innovative and creative.
- The project is not already available.
- The project has a competitive advantage over similar projects.